China Cord Blood Corporation Announces Formation of a Special Committee to Evaluate Non-Binding Proposal

HONG KONG, China, April 29, 2015 — China Cord Blood Corporation (NYSE: CO) (“CCBC” or the “Company”), China’s leading provider of cord blood collection, laboratory testing, hematopoietic stem cell processing and stem cell storage services, today announced that in response to the non-binding proposal letter dated April 27, 2015 received by the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) from Golden Meditech Holdings Limited (“Golden Meditech”), relating to the acquisition of all of the outstanding ordinary shares of the Company not already owned by Golden Meditech in a “going private” transaction, the Board has formed a special committee of independent directors who are not affiliated with Golden Meditech (the “Special Committee”) to evaluate such proposal. The Special Committee consists of Mr. Mark D. Chen, Dr. Ken Lu and Ms. Jennifer J. Weng, each of whom currently serves as an independent director on the Board, with Mr. Chen serving as the chair of the Special Committee. The Special Committee intends to retain advisors, including an independent financial advisor and U.S. and Cayman Islands legal counsel, to assist it in its evaluation.

The Company cautions its shareholders and others considering trading its securities that neither the Board nor the Special Committee has made any decision with respect to the Company’s response to the proposal letter. There can be no assurance that any definitive offer will be made by Golden Meditech or any other person, that any definitive agreement will be executed relating to the proposed transaction, or that the proposed transaction or any other transaction will be approved or consummated.
