China Cord Blood Corporation Announces Resignation of an Independent Director

HONG KONG, China, May 14, 2015 — China Cord Blood Corporation (NYSE: CO) (“CCBC” or the “Company”), China’s leading provider of cord blood collection, laboratory testing, hematopoietic stem cell processing and stem cell storage services, today announced that Mr. Julian J. Wolhardt, one of the Company’s independent directors, has resigned from the board of directors effective May 13, 2015. Upon his resignation, Mr. Wolhardt will also cease to be a member of each of the Company’s Compensation Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

Ms. Ting Zheng, the Company’s chief executive officer, commented, “Mr. Wolhardt has been a trusted member of our board since 2012. On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank him for his many contributions and wish him every success as he pursues new opportunities.”

On April 29, 2015, the Company announced the formation of a special committee of the board of directors (the “Special Committee”) comprised of Mr. Mark D. Chen, Dr. Ken Lu and Ms. Jennifer J. Weng, to consider the preliminary non-binding proposal letter dated April 27, 2015 from Golden Meditech Holdings Limited (“Golden Meditech”) to acquire all of the outstanding ordinary shares of the Company not currently owned by Golden Meditech in a “going private” transaction (the “Proposal”). Negotiations between the Special Committee and Golden Meditech with respect to the Proposal are on-going, and the Special Committee continues to seek to engage financial and legal advisors to assist it in its review of the Proposal.
